Dear Shri Bhar,

On behalf of the Ramakrishna Mission Vivekananda Centenary College Governing Body, I am glad to inform you that you have been appointed as Assistant Professor in Botany in our college with effect from 04.02.2015, subject to approval of the D.P.I. West Bengal. You will be entitled to newly revised UGC scales (2006) as per the existing rules of the State Government after your pay is duly fixed by the Director of Public Instruction, Government of West Bengal. You will also be entitled to the allowance/benefits as admissible from time to time as per the State Government rules in force governing the service conditions of Assistant Professor in Non-Government colleges, from the date on which you join the post on substantive basis. However you will be paid your salary as and when the same is released by the Education Directorate, Govt. of West Bengal.

You will remain on probation for a period of one year w.e.f. the date on which you join the post. The probationary period may be extended for another year or you may be considered for confirmation as the Governing Body may decide on the basis of your performance during the probationary period.

Regarding probation, confirmation and other conditions of service you will be guided by the West Bengal College Teachers (Security of Service) Rules, 1977 and the rules made there under in addition to the Government orders and Rules & Statutes/Regulations/Rules/Ordinance etc. of the University.

You will be required to co-operate with and assist the Principal in carrying out the functions relating to the educational responsibilities of the college as well as in conducting co-curricular activities. You will also be required to submit a self-appraisal report at the time of joining and also at the end of every academic session in a proforma as prescribed by the University.

This letter of appointment will be treated as cancelled if you fail to join the post by 16th February, 2015.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Shri Ghosh,

Sub:- Temporary appointment of a Lecturer in Chemistry against a leave vacancy.

Ref:- Your application dated 14.9.87 and the interview held on 15.11.87.

I am glad to inform you that on the recommendation of the Selection Committee, you have been appointed a Temporary Lecturer in Chemistry in the College with effect from 3.12.87 against a leave vacancy. The appointment is, however, subject to the approval of the Governing Body of the College and of the University Grants Commission, New Delhi.

The appointment is for the present for a period of one year with effect from the aforesaid date which may be extended for another year on the recommendation of the Governing Body of the College. You will be eligible for the UGC scale of pay of Rs. 700-40-1100-50-1600 with an initial salary of Rs. 700/- plus allowances and other benefits as admissible under the rules with effect from the same date. During the period of the appointment your service may be terminated from either side with a simple notice of one month. Unless extended by prior notice, your appointment will stand automatically terminated at the end of a period of one year from the date of your joining. No separate notice for such termination will be issued.

It may also be noted that your appointment is subject to the result of the Appeal case now pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India regarding the status of the College.

Apart from taking the classes according to the routine, you will be required to co-operate and assist the Principal in carrying out his functions relating to the academic work of the College as well as in conducting
