

Ramakrishna Mission Vivekananda
Centenary College, Rahara
Code of Conduct for Students

- The students must conform to the rules and discipline of the college and the hostel. The object of discipline is to help the students to develop their potentialities in an orderly way, to promote a healthy relation between the teachers and the taught as also to preserve a peaceful academic atmosphere essential for study. Love is always the guiding principle and the basis for obedience, though strict discipline is also insisted upon.
- All students must regulate their lives according to the prescribed routine for study, work and prayer. They will have to keep to the simple standard of living maintained in the hostel and do their own works themselves as far as practicable and be regular and punctual in all matters.
- It is a serious offence to be absent from a class unless a student is physically unfit or is specially permitted by the Principal.
- No student is permitted to go outside the college campus during college hours without permission from the college authorities.
- It is treated as an offence when any student overstays leave or is found not present in the college on the reopening date of the college from the very first period after any vacation or holidays.

- Students are allowed to go home during long vacations namely, the Summer Recess, the Puja and the Winter Holidays. It is to be noted that frequent home-going is discouraged as it interferes with the studies and the continuity of the disciplined life of a boy.
- He must also be very careful about the books and other valuable things. The authorities will take no responsibility for loss of students belongings and money.
- Permission of the Principal/Controller of Examinations will be necessary for arranging or taking part in any function or activity other than the ones officially allowed.
- Use of mobile phones, radios (FM), sound systems etc. by students in the college is prohibited.
- Purchasing of periodicals etc. by individual students should be done with the permission of the concerned person.
- The RKMVCC, under the Ramakrishna Mission, which is a non-political body, the students of this institution must keep scrupulously away from any kind of political activity.
- If a student's record of progress in studies is found to be unsatisfactory, he may not be permitted to continue his studies in this college. Students considered unfit to continue owing to health grounds, bad attendance, bad habits (e.g. smoking etc.), indiscipline, unsatisfactory conduct or any other reason which may not always be assigned, are also liable to be removed from the college. Any student, not conforming to the norms of the college, is liable to disciplinary measures ranging from fines to expulsion.

- As a matter of principle, private tuition is discouraged in this institution. The overmuch dependence on private tutors not only affects the individual study of the student, but seriously erodes his confidence in himself. Except in exceptional circumstances, therefore, private tuition will not be allowed.
- Students carrying any chronic illness must report the same before admission to the college
- With a view to acquainting the students with the fundamentals of the Spiritual Heritage of India, regular classes are held according to a curriculum specially drawn up for the purpose.
- The boys organize various kinds of socio-religious functions and festivities and take part in the national festivals. Moreover, they participate in the periodical religious celebrations of the Ashrama.
- The students are taught to be self-reliant, active and practical and are encouraged to develop a sense of social obligation and responsibility.
- The College Uniforms are either of: Blue trousers (not payjamas) and blue shirt for UGs students, Chocolate trousers (not payjamas) and Chocolate shirt for PG & PG Diploma students,
- Students should remember that this is a ragging-free campus. The college maintains zero tolerance regarding ragging.
- We do not allow students swimming in the ponds.
- Smoking or any sort of addiction is strictly prohibited by us.
